Definitions

"Chief Executive" means the Chief Executive Officer, General Manager, Secretary or other Senior Executive Officer of the Employer who is authorised by the Employer to sign this agreement on its behalf;

"Authorised User" means an employee of the Employer who is authorised under this agreement to use the Service on behalf of the Employer;

"Authorised Officer" means an employee of the Employer who has been authorised by the Chief Executive to establish Authorised Users of the Service;

"Service" means the Vision Super Secure Web Site for Employers and includes future enhancements and developments of that site;

Provision of Service

The Employer hereby applies for access to the Service and agrees to be bound by the terms and conditions contained herein. Vision Super will provide the Service to Internet standard, for use with Microsoft IE5.0 or higher browser. The provision of all hardware and software to access the site (including reconfiguration of firewalls) shall be the sole responsibility of the Employer.

Nomination and Removal of Authorised Users

- a) Vision Super will establish the Authorised Officer as an Authorised User of the Service.
- b) The Employer may from time to time nominate one or more of its employees as Authorised Users in addition to the Authorised Officer on application by the Authorised Officer in a manner and form approved by Vision Super.
- c) The Employer will ensure that Vision Super is fully informed of any changes to details of any of its Authorised Users including e-mail addresses.
- d) Vision Super shall maintain a facility through the Service whereby any Authorised User in relation to the Employer can remove another Authorised User in relation to the Employer from the user database.
- e) An Authorised User ceases to be an Authorised User only when that user's authorisation has been properly removed from the user database. Notification by the Employer or Authorised Officer
- f) of intention to remove a user shall not take effect until the User's details have been removed from the user database.
- g) Vision Super retains the right to remove an Authorised User from the user database at any time for any reason including but not limited to protection of the confidentiality and integrity of membership data.

Authentication of Users

Vision Super shall allocate to all Authorised Users a unique identification number and password. Access to the Service shall only be provided on provision in the site by the Authorised User of that unique identification number and password.

Liability and responsibilities of Employer

The Employer must establish and maintain security measures adequate and appropriate to prevent unauthorised access to the Service and accepts full responsibility for the actions of its Authorised Users. The Employer accepts liability arising from the actions of its Authorised Users or from transactions executed on its behalf using the Service. Vision Super records shall be prima facie evidence of access to, and operation of the service, whether executed by Authorised Users or otherwise.

Employer to use Service fully

The Employer agrees that it will use its best endeavours to ensure that its Authorised Users utilise the Service to the full extent possible, and that in particular, individual processes initiated or commenced using the Service are completed to the full extent possible using the Service.

Future agreement between the parties

The provisions of any future agreement between the Employer and Vision Super either in relation to the Service or otherwise may add to, or remove any of the provisions of this agreement, as provided in that future agreement.

Privacy

The Employer acknowledges that Vision Super is committed to the responsible management of its members' personal information and agrees to abide by the Vision Super Privacy Policies.
