- (a) a reference in a rule to “the shareholders” is a reference to that shareholder; and

2 Share capital

2.1 Shares and options

Without prejudice to any special rights conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares, the directors may issue, allot or grant options in respect of, or otherwise dispose of, shares to such persons, for such price, on such conditions, at such times and with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or special restrictions as the directors think fit.

2.2 Variation of class rights

Unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of a class of shares:

- (a) all or any of the rights or privileges attached to the class may be varied, whether or not the company is being wound up, only with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class;
- (b) the provisions of this constitution relating to general meetings apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to each separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class; and
- (c) the rights conferred on the holders of the shares of that class are to be taken as not having been varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking equally with them.

The company may by resolution reclassify or convert shares from one class to another.

Where 2 or more persons are registered as the holders of a share they hold it as joint tenants with rights of survivorship subject to the following provisions:

- (a) they and their respective legal personal representatives are liable severally as well as jointly for all payments, including calls, which ought to be made in respect of the share;
- (b) the company is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of the share;

- (d) the provisions as to voting set out in rule 4.8(b).

2.7 Equitable and other claims

- (a) Except as otherwise required by law or provided by this constitution, the company is entitled to treat the registered holder of a share as the absolute owner of that share and need not:
 - (1) recognise a person as holding a share upon any trust, even if the company has notice of that trust; or
 - (2) recognise, or be bound by, any equitable, contingent, future partial claim to or interest in a share by any other person except an absolute right of ownership in the registered holder, even if the company has notice of that claim or interest.
- (b) With the consent of the directors, shares held by a trustee may be marked in the register in such a way as to identify them as being held subject to the relevant trust.
- (c) Nothing in rule 2.7(b) limits the operation of rule 2.7(a).

3 Transfer and transmission of shares

3.1 Transfer of shares

- (a) Subject to this constitution and to the rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares, a shareholder may transfer any of the shareholder's shares by an instrument in writing in any usual form or in any other form that the directors approve.
- (b) An instrument of transfer referred to in rule 3.1(a) must:
 - (1) be signed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee unless:
 - (A) the instrument of transfer relates only to fully paid shares and signature by the transferee has been dispensed with by the directors; or
 - (B) the transfer of the shares is effected by a document which is, or documents which together are, a sufficient transfer of those shares under the Act;
 - (2) if required by law to be stamped, be duly stamped;
 - (3) in the case of a transfer of partly paid shares, be endorsed by, or accompanied by an instrument executed by, the transferee to the effect that the transferee agrees to accept the shares subject to the terms and conditions on which the transferor held them and to become a shareholder and to be bound by the company's constitution; and
 - (4) be left for registration at the registered office of the company, or at such other place as the directors determine, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and such other evidence the directors require to prove the title of the transferor or the transferor's right to the shares and to prove the right of the transferee to be registered as the owner of the shares.
- (c) A transferor of shares remains the holder of the shares transferred until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee is entered in the register of shareholders in respect of the shares.
- (d) The company may retain a registered instrument of transfer for any period the directors think fit.
- (e) Except in the case of fraud, the company must return any instrument of transfer which the directors decline to register to the person who deposited it with the company.
- (f) The directors may, to the extent permitted by law, waive all or any of the requirements of this rule 3.1.

3.2 Power to decline registration of transfers

Subject to any special rights conferred on the holders of any shares or class of shares, the directors may, in their absolute discretion, decline to register any transfer of shares.

3.3 Power to suspend registration of transfers

The directors may suspend the registration of transfers at such times and for such periods, not exceeding in total 30 days in any year, as they think fit.

3.4 Transfer of director's shares

A director who is also a shareholder owes an irrevocable obligation to the company secretary to transfer all shares in the company held by that director to any person nominated by the company secretary, if a director ceases to be director for any reason. The director, in consideration of the issue or transfer of a share or shares to the director irrevocably appoints the company secretary as that director's attorney to do all things necessary, including, but not limited to, the signing of a share transfer form, to give effect to the relevant transfer. The appointment of the company secretary as a director's attorney under this rule 3.4 will continue despite the occurrence of a transmission event in respect of the director.

3.5 Death of shareholders

- (a) Where a shareholder dies, the only persons the company will recognise as having any title to the shareholder's shares or any benefits accruing in respect of those shares are:
 - (1) the legal personal representative of the deceased, where the deceased was a sole holder; and
 - (2) the survivor where the deceased was a joint holder.
- (b) Nothing contained in rule 3.5(a) releases the estate of a deceased shareholder from any liability in respect of a share, whether that share was held by the deceased solely or jointly with other persons.
- (c) The directors may require a person who becomes entitled to a share as a result of the death of a shareholder ("Entitled Person") to execute a transfer of the share to a person nominated by the directors on payment by that person of the amount paid up on that share to the Entitled Person.
- (d) The provisions of this constitution relating to the right to transfer shares, and the registration of transfers of shares apply, so far as they can and with any necessary changes, to any transfer under rule 3.5(c) as if the death of a shareholder had not occurred and the transfer was signed by the registered holder of the share.
- (e) For the purpose of this constitution, where 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of a shareholder they will, upon being registered as the holders of the share, be taken to hold the share as joint tenants and rule 2.6 will apply to them.
- (f) Notwithstanding rule 3.5(a), the directors may register a transfer of shares signed by a shareholder prior to the death of the shareholder even though the company has notice of the death of the shareholder.

4 General Meetings

4.1 Calling general meetings

- (a) The directors may, whenever they think fit, call and arrange to hold a general meeting.
- (b) A general meeting may be convened only as provided by this rule 4.1 or as otherwise required by the Act.
- (c) The directors may postpone, cancel or change the venue of a general meeting, but a general meeting called and arranged under section 249D of the Act may not be postponed beyond the date by which section 249D requires it to be held and may not be cancelled without the consent of the requisitioning shareholder or shareholders.

4.2 Notice of general meetings

- (a) Subject to this constitution and to the rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares, notice of a general meeting must be given within the time limits prescribed by the Act.
- (b) The content of a notice of a general meeting called by directors is to be decided by the directors, but must specify the time and place of the meeting and state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and any other matters required by the Act.
- (c) A person may waive notice of any general meeting by notice in writing to the company.
- (d) Failure to give notice of a general meeting or a proxy form to any person entitled to receive notice of a general meeting under this rule 4.2 does not invalidate any act, matter or thing done or resolution passed at the general meeting if:
 - (1) the failure occurred by accident or error; or
 - (2) before or after the meeting, the person:
 - (A) has waived or waives notice of that meeting under rule 4.2(c); or
 - (B) has notified or notifies the company of the person's agreement to that act, matter, thing or resolution by notice in writing to the company.
- (e) A person's attendance at a general meeting:
 - (1) waives any objection that person may have to a failure to give notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of the meeting unless the person at the beginning of the meeting objects to the holding of the meeting; and
 - (2) waives any objection that person may have to the consideration of a particular matter at the meeting which is not within the business referred to in the notice of the meeting unless the person objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

4.3 Admission to general meetings

The Chairperson of a general meeting may take any action he or she considers appropriate for the safety of persons attending the meeting and the orderly conduct of the meeting and may refuse admission to, or require to leave and remain out of, the meeting any person:

- (a) in possession of a pictorial-recording or sound-recording device;
- (b) in possession of a placard or banner;
- (c) in possession of an article considered by the Chairperson to be dangerous, offensive or liable to cause disruption;

- (f) who is not:
 - (1) a shareholder, proxy, or representative of a shareholder;
 - (2) a director;
 - (3) an auditor of the company; or
 - (4) a person requested by the directors or chairman to attend the meeting.

4.4 Quorum at general meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at any general meeting, except the election of a Chairperson and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum of shareholders is present when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (b) A quorum consists of:
 - (1) if the number of shareholders entitled to vote is 2 or more - 2 of those shareholders; or
 - (2) if only one shareholder is entitled to vote - that shareholder, present at the meeting.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the general meeting:
 - (1) where the meeting was convened on the requisition of shareholders, the meeting must be dissolved; or
 - (2) in any other case:
 - (A) the meeting stands adjourned to the day, and at such time and place, as the directors decide or, if no decision is made by the directors, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - (B) if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

4.5 Chairperson of general meetings

- (a) The Chairperson of directors must (if present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act) preside as Chairperson at each general meeting.
- (b) If at a general meeting:
 - (1) there is no Chairperson of directors; or
 - (2) the Chairperson of directors is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting; or
 - (3) the Chairperson of directors is present within that time but is not willing to act as Chairperson of the meeting,then one of the other directors must act as Chairperson.

4.6 Conduct of general meetings

- (a) The Chairperson of a general meeting is responsible for the general conduct of the meeting and for the procedures to be adopted at the meeting and may require the adoption of any procedures which are in his or her opinion necessary or desirable for:
 - (1) proper and orderly debate or discussion, including limiting the time that a person may speak on a motion or other item of business before the meeting; and
 - (2) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, including the appointment of scrutineers.
- (b) The Chairperson of a general meeting may at his or her sole discretion at any time during the course of the meeting adjourn from time to time and place to place the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting or any debate or discussion and may adjourn any business, motion, question or resolution, debate or discussion either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting.
- (c) No business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (d) Where a meeting is adjourned, notice need not be given to any person unless the meeting is adjourned for more than 30 days.
- (e) Where a meeting is adjourned, the directors may postpone, cancel or change the venue of the adjourned meeting.
- (f) Where a meeting of shareholders is held at 2 or more venues using any form of technology:
 - (1) a shareholder participating in the meeting is to be taken to be present in person at the meeting;
 - (2) all the provisions in this constitution relating to meetings of shareholders apply, so far as they can and with such changes as are necessary, to meetings of the shareholders using that technology;

and

- (3) the meeting is to be taken to be held at the place determined by the Chairperson of the general meeting as long as at least one of the shareholders involved was at that place for the duration of the general meeting.
- (g) If the technology used encounters a technical difficulty, whether before or during the meeting, which results in a shareholder not being able to participate in the meeting, the Chairperson may, subject to the Act, allow the meeting to continue or may adjourn the meeting either for such reasonable period as may be required to fix the technology or to such other time and location as the Chairperson deems appropriate.

4.7 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Except in the case of any resolution which as a matter of law requires a special majority, questions arising at a general meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the shareholders present at the meeting and any such decision is for all purposes a decision of the shareholders.
- (b) In the case of an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution:
 - (1) the Chairperson of the meeting will not have a second or casting vote; and
 - (2) the proposed resolution is to be taken as having been lost.
- (c) A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded before a show of hands is held or before result of the show of hands is delivered or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands:
 - (1) by the Chairperson of the meeting; or
 - (2) by any shareholder present and having the right to vote at the meeting.
- (d) A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- (e) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson of a general meeting that resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.
- (f) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken in such manner and (subject to rule 4.7(g)) either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chairperson of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll as declared by the Chairperson is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (g) A poll demanded at a general meeting on the election of a Chairperson of the meeting or a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

- (h) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

4.8 Voting rights

- (a) Subject to this constitution and to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares, at a general meeting:
- (1) on a show of hands, every shareholder present has one vote; and
 - (2) on a poll, every shareholder present has one vote for each share held by the shareholder and in respect of which the shareholder is entitled to vote.
- (b) If a person present at a general meeting represents personally, by proxy or representative more than one shareholder:
- (1) on a show of hands the person is entitled to one vote only, even though he or she represents more than one shareholder;
 - (2) that vote will be taken as having been cast for all the shareholders the person represents; and
 - (3) the person must not exercise that vote in a way which would contravene any directions given to the person in accordance with rule 4.11(g) in any instrument appointing the person as a proxy.
- (c) A joint holder may vote at any meeting in person, by proxy or representative as if that person were the sole holder. If more than one joint holder tenders a vote, the vote of the holder named first in the register must be accepted to the exclusion of the other or others.
- (d) A person entitled to a share because of a transmission event may vote at any general meeting in respect of that share in the same way as if that person were the registered holder of the share if, before the meeting, the directors have:
- (1) admitted that person's right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share; or
 - (2) been satisfied of that person's right to be registered as the holder of, or to transfer, the share under rule 3.1(c),
- and any vote so tendered by that person must be accepted to the exclusion of the vote of the registered holder of the share.
- (e) A shareholder is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all calls and other sums presently payable by that shareholder in respect of shares in the company have been paid.
- (f) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting must be:

 - (2) otherwise in accordance with the Act.
- (b) If a share is held jointly, each of the joint shareholders must sign the document.
- (c) The passage of the resolution satisfies any requirement in the Act, or in this constitution, that the resolution be passed at a general meeting.

- (e) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, an instrument appointing a proxy or representative will be taken to confer authority:
 - (1) to agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Act or by this constitution;
 - (2) to agree to a resolution being proposed and passed as a special resolution at a meeting of which less than the period of notice required by the Act has been given; and
 - (3) even though the instrument may refer to specific resolutions and may direct the proxy or representative how to vote on those resolutions:

- (A) to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - (B) to vote on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the Chairperson, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting; and
 - (C) to act generally at the meeting.
- (f) Where a shareholder appoints 2 proxies to vote at the same general meeting, the following rules apply:
- (1) the appointment is of no effect and a proxy may not vote unless each proxy, as the case may be, is appointed to represent a specified proportion of the shareholder's voting rights;
 - (2) if the Act precludes the company from treating as invalid the appointment of 2 proxies which fails to specify the proportion or number of votes that each may exercise, each person appointed may exercise half the shareholder's votes;
 - (3) on a show of hands, neither proxy may vote;
 - (4) on a poll, each proxy may only exercise the voting rights the proxy represents; and
 - (5) if both appointments cannot be validly exercised at the meeting, the later appointment revokes the earlier appointment of a proxy.
- (g) An instrument appointing a proxy may direct the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the instrument.
- (h) A proxy may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting or on a poll unless the instrument appointing the proxy, and a certified copy of the authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed, are received at the registered office of the company or at another place, fax number or election address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting:
- (1) in the case of a meeting or an adjourned meeting, before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

- (3) the deposit, tabling or production of a copy (including a copy sent by fax) of an instrument appointing a proxy or other authority under which the instrument is signed.
- (j) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy is valid despite:
 - (1) a transmission event occurring in relation to the appointer; or
 - (2) the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, if no notice in writing of the transmission event or revocation has been received by the company by the time and at one of the places at which the instrument appointing the proxy is required to be deposited under rule 4.11(h).
- (k) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy is valid despite the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument was given, if the transfer is not registered by the time at which the instrument appointing the proxy is required to be deposited, tabled or produced under rule 4.11(h).
- (l) The appointment of a proxy is not revoked by the appointer attending and taking part in the general meeting but, if the appointer votes on a resolution, the person acting as proxy for the appointer is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointer's proxy on the resolution.

7 Seals

7.1 Common seal

Without limiting the ways in which the company can execute documents in accordance with the Act, if the directors so decide, the company may have a common seal.

7.2 Use of seal

The directors may decide on procedures for the use of the seal.

8 Reserves, Profits and Dividends

8.1 Reserves

- (a) Subject to this constitution, the directors may keep such reserves or provisions for such purposes as they think fit.
- (b) The directors may appropriate to the profits of the company any amount previously set aside as a reserve or provision.
- (c) Setting aside an amount as a reserve or provision does not require the directors to keep the amount separate from the other assets of the company or prevent the amount being used in the business of the company or being invested in such investments as the directors decide.

8.2 Carry forward of profits

The directors must carry forward so much of the profits remaining as is not transferred to a reserve or provision.

8.3 Dividends

The directors may determine that a dividend is payable and fix:

- (a) the amount;
- (b) the time for payment; and
- (c) the method of payment.

9 Winding Up

- (a) Subject to rule 9(b) and rule 9(c), if upon the winding up or dissolution of the company there remains, after satisfaction of all the company's debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, that property may be given or transferred to one or more of the Funds or PSTs (as determined by the directors, having regard to Relevant Law) to be used for the purpose of the general administration of those Funds or PSTs (as determined by the directors, having regard to Relevant Law), or may be paid to or distributed amongst the shareholders of the company subject to any relevant dividend declaration made by the director (it being noted that the shareholders hold the shares in trust for the Local Authorities Superannuation Fund).
- (b) If each of the Funds and PSTs is no longer in existence at the time of the winding up or dissolution of the company, then any property remaining must be given or transferred to another superannuation fund which the shareholders regard as being a successor fund to the applicable Fund under the Relevant Law or to another pooled superannuation trust (as determined by the directors, having regard to Relevant Law). If there is, in the shareholders' opinion, no successor fund or other pooled superannuation trust, then the remaining property shall be given or transferred to some other company, fund, authority or institution which has objects similar to the objects of the company (the "successor entity"). In such circumstances, the successor entity is to be determined by the shareholders of the company at or before the time of winding up or dissolution or, in default, by a judge of the Supreme Court of the State or Territory in which the company has its registered office as may have or acquire jurisdiction in the matter.
- (c) If the company ceases to be the trustee of a Fund, regardless of whether the company has been wound up or dissolved under rule 9(a), the company must, as soon as practicable, give or transfer to that Fund any property the company holds which was transferred to the company from that Fund in order for the company to meet any capitalisation requirements imposed by a regulator under the Relevant Law.
- (d) If the company ceases to be the trustee of a PST, regardless of whether the company has been wound up or dissolved under rule 9(a), the company must, as soon as practicable, give or transfer to that PST any property the company holds which was transferred to the company from that PST in order for the company to meet any capitalisation requirements imposed by a regulator under the Relevant Law.

The directors must cause minutes of all proceedings and resolutions of general meetings and of meetings of directors (including committees of directors) to be recorded, in books kept for that purpose, within one month after the relevant meeting is held.

10.2 Minutes of resolutions passed without a meeting

The directors must ensure minutes of resolutions passed by shareholders and resolutions passed and declarations made by directors (and committees of directors) without a meeting are recorded in books kept for the purpose within one month after the resolution is passed or the declaration is made.

10.3 Signing of minutes

10.4 Minutes as evidence

A minute that is recorded and signed under rule 10.1 and rule 10.3 is evidence of the proceeding, resolution or declaration to which it relates unless the contrary is proved.

10.5 Inspection of records and access to documents

- (a) The directors must ensure the minute books for general meetings are open for inspection by shareholders free of charge.
- (b) The directors may determine whether and to what extent, and at what time and places and under what conditions, the minute books, accounting records and other documents of the company or any of them will be open to the inspection of shareholders other than directors.
- (c) A person who is not a director does not have the right to inspect any of the board papers, books, records or documents of the company, except as provided by law or this constitution, or authorised by the directors.
- (d) The company may enter into contracts with its directors agreeing to provide continuing access for a specified period after they cease to be a director to board papers, books, records and documents of the company which relate to the period during which the director was a director on such terms and conditions as the directors think fit and which are not inconsistent with this rule 10.5.
