

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – PLEASE READ BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM

Please note that if you are a Defined Benefit member, you cannot nominate beneficiaries for your defined benefit account, which must be paid to your estate.

You can use this form to:

- Make a binding beneficiary nomination, which means Vision Super must pay your death benefit in accordance with your wishes (provided the nomination is valid at the time)
- Revoke an existing beneficiary nomination
- Make a preferred beneficiary nomination, which means Vision Super will consider your wishes but can exercise its discretion about who to pay your death benefit to and how much each beneficiary receives.

Who can you nominate as a beneficiary?

The people you can nominate as a beneficiary are restricted by law to your dependants or legal personal representative. If you want your super to go to someone who you cannot nominate, you can do this by making a will and nominating your estate as your beneficiary. Estate planning is a complex topic and you should consult a legal practitioner if you want to take this option.

You can nominate:

1. Your legal personal representative (estate) – the person or organisation you have appointed as the executor of your will or the administrator of your estate if you don't have a valid will, the trustee of the estate of a person under a legal disability, or the person who holds an enduring Power of Attorney that you have granted.
2. Your dependants:
 - a. Your spouse or partner – whether you are married or not, a partner you live with in a relationship as a couple, including same-sex partners.
 - b. Your children, including adopted children and your spouse/partner's children. If your children are over 18, there may be tax consequences of paying them a death benefit.
 - c. A person in an interdependent relationship with you, where you have a close personal relationship, and you live together and provide each other with financial and/or domestic support and personal care. You may also have an interdependent relationship if you satisfy all of the other criteria, but do not live together because of a disability that requires one or both of you to live in a medical facility.

How to make a binding beneficiary nomination

- Complete sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this form.
- You need two adults over the age of 18 to witness your signature. They must see you sign the form, and then sign the form themselves. They cannot be your beneficiaries.
- You will need to renew your binding nomination every three years from the date you sign it to keep it valid. You may also need to update your beneficiary nomination if your circumstances change – for example, you get married or start living with a partner, have a child, or one of your beneficiaries is no longer dependent on you or dies.
- You must post the original form back to Vision Super – we cannot accept faxed or emailed forms as we need to see the original signatures.

How to make a preferred beneficiary nomination

- Complete sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7 of this form.
- Preferred nominations are not binding on Vision Super, but they are an important consideration if Vision Super has to pay your benefit.

How to revoke a beneficiary nomination

You can revoke your beneficiary nomination at any time by completing a new Beneficiary nomination form.

Binding and preferred beneficiary nominations are explained in Section 14 of the Vision Income Streams Product Disclosure Statement.
