

IMPORTANT INFORMATION - PLEASE READ BEFORE COMPLETING THIS FORM

Please note that if you are a Defined Benefit member, you cannot nominate beneficiaries for your defined benefit account, which must be paid to your estate.

You can use this form to:

- Make a binding beneficiary nomination, which means Vision Super must pay your death benefit in accordance with your wishes (provided the nomination is valid at the time it is made)
- Revoke an existing beneficiary nomination
- Make a preferred beneficiary nomination, which means Vision Super will consider your wishes but can exercise its discretion about who to pay your death benefit to and how much each beneficiary receives.

Who can you nominate as a beneficiary?

You can nominate your dependants or your Estate.

You can nominate:

- 1. Your dependants as per the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993:
 - a. Your spouse or partner whether you are married or not, a partner you live with in a genuine domestic relationship as a couple, including same-sex partners.
 - b. Your children, including adopted children and your spouse/partner's children. If your children are over 18, there may be tax consequences of paying them a death benefit.
 - c. A person in an interdependent relationship with you, where you have a close personal relationship with each other, and you live together and provide each other with financial and/or domestic support and personal care. You may also have an interdependent relationship if you satisfy all of the other criteria, but do not live together because of a disability that requires one or both of you to live in a medical facility.
 - d. A person who is financially dependent on you
- 2. Your Estate Vision Super will deal with the Legal Personal Representative, who is the person appointed to that role by being named as the executor in the Will or if there is no Will, by being appointed administrator of the estate by the Supreme Court.

How to make a binding beneficiary nomination

- Complete sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this form.
- You need two adults over the age of 18 to witness your signature. They must see you sign the form, and then sign the form themselves. They cannot be your beneficiaries.
- You will need to renew your binding nomination every three years from the date you sign it to keep it valid. You may also need to update your beneficiary nomination if your circumstances change for example, you get married or start living with a partner, have a child, or one of your beneficiaries is no longer dependent on you or dies.
- You must post the original form back to Vision Super we cannot accept faxed or emailed forms as we need to see the original signatures.

How to make a preferred beneficiary nomination

- Complete sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7 of this form.
- Preferred nominations are not binding on Vision Super, but they are an important consideration when Vision Super has to pay your benefit.

How to revoke a beneficiary nomination

You can revoke your beneficiary nomination at any time by completing a new Beneficiary nomination form.

When will a binding nomination be invalid?

A binding nomination will normally become invalid or ineffective when one of the following happens:

- Three years have lapsed from the date the Binding nomination form was signed,
- Any nominated beneficiary dies before you die,
- Any nominated beneficiary is not a dependant at the time of your death. For example, if your spouse is nominated and you are divorced or your defacto relationship ended.

Also the trustee is not required to pay the death benefit in accordance with a valid and effective binding nomination in some circumstances including if:

- The trustee is subject to a court order and doing so would breach the court order, or
- The trustee is aware that the giving of, or failure to amend or revoke a nomination was a breach of a court order.
